Grandma's birthday

Today is Grandma's 70th birthday. We had a big celebration at home!

Grandma does not like dining out. She prefers homemade food, so we prepared a big dinner for her at home. In the morning, Mum and Dad went to the wet market and bought a lot of food, like shrimps and crabs. Mum was busy in the kitchen all afternoon. Grandma told her not to make too many dishes. But she got excited when Mum began to make spring rolls and barbecued pork, her favourite food. Dad and I baked a birthday cake. We needed help from Mum because we seldom cook.

It was such a big, delicious meal! We kept eating and eating until we all burped loudly. Grandma couldn't stop smiling the whole evening!
